

State Representative Julie Willoughby Extremism Spotlight

Willoughby is closely aligned with expelled former Rep. Liz Harris, who pushed unfounded right-wing conspiracy theories. In May 2023, Willoughby was appointed to replace Harris, who had been expelled by the legislature for inviting a woman who made unfounded criminal allegations against legislators at a hearing, then lying about it to the House Ethics Committee. Harris was already notorious for pushing conspiracy theories around the 2020 election. Willoughby and Harris ran as a ticket in the 2022 election. Willoughby has refused to say that the 2020 election in Maricopa County was safe and secure. AZ Mirror, [5/5/2023]
